Dear Doctor:

I am sorry I was unable to attend the meeting of the Corcoran Art Gallery Board appointed for last evening, but I was too unwell to leave the house in such stormy weather.

I return herewith some duplicate photographs sent by you to me at Woods Hole last summer. I presume you can make a better disposition of them than I can.

Mr Wm MacLeod,

Dear Sir, I wrote to you yesterday while in N.Y. and I fear did not make myself clear about the Exp. Charges in bronze med of Franklin. I never like to pay exp. in advance, and therefore would prefer to remit them to you when I hear from you if that is not objectionable.
 I think that I will send a local image if you think well of the Fr.
 I believe I told you that if agreeable I would like the Copper rally of ant to take the Franklin sent, although and like the one Mrs. W. sent it.

Mr Wm MacLeod,
 Dear Sir, Your kind letter is recd. Thank you for your trouble. You may if he claims it deliver the Franklin to my nephew Wm. L. Bramhall
 I would like to avoid having it sent back.
 By the way will you please let me know the Expt. bill? As to the Franklin intaglio, I have placed

It and all the other in tupin at $15, wholesale but will be happy to let your nephew have one at that price if he wants and will box it and send it to his home if he desires. That will be just as good as for him to see it in N.Y.

Thanking you again I

Dear Sir

Yours of the 14th inst. is rec'd. I am glad to receive such full information about the Thornton [Stuart] medallion. The first time I am in Washⁿ. I shall call & thank you for your kindness in taking so much trouble to answer my questions.

Trumbull's portrait in the "Declaration of Independence" is of course a replica. I suppose of the portrait painted in Paris in 1787.

In reference to Miss Ransom's copy of Rembt. Peale. This is new to me. The original was painted in 1803 but under what circumstances I do not know, as Peale was abroad that year while Jefferson was not. Is Miss Ransom still alive & if so do you know her address. If not alive can you give me her full name & place where she lived & date of painting, also the name & address of the photographer? There is a very poor heliotype copy of Rembt. Peale in the 1st. ed. of Parton's Life of Jefferson. This is the only reproduction of Rembt. Peale that I know of. There are several engravings from P. Peale's portrait but they are so very unlike ~~that~~ the N.Y. Hist Soc's picture that there must be another painting by a Peale. I am told by one gentl^{man} that it was Rubens Peale - but this is all I can find. Nobody as yet, seems to know the whereabouts or the identity of this picture. I think however that it must be in New York.

Yours truly

LOCK BOX 284.

Washington, D.C., October 20th, 1885.

To the Members of the Columbian Art Gallery.

Gentlemen:

A short time since the Committee of Columbia Typographical Union caused to be mailed you a circular-letter setting forth the cause of disagreement between Gibson Bros., printers, and said Union. Since then we have learned that a few to whom notifications were sent have continued to have their printing done by said firm. A presentation of the equities in the matter involved not having had the effect desired, we now make the open offer to have your printing done IN THIS CITY for the next thirty days at 10 per cent. discount on Gibson Bros.' established prices. Hoping to hear from you at an early day,

I am, very respectfully,

JULIAN L. WRIGHT,

Dear Sir

I return the Circular of the "Columbia Topographical

Personally, I would not countenance the movement for a discount of 50%, or any other amount, and think it would be well to advertise it and say that it will be laid before the Trustees at their next meeting.
